19 ORDER GRANTING IN PART EX
20 PART APPLICATION TO 21 EXTEND TIME TO RESPOND
22 TO DEFENDANTS' MOTIONS23 Plaintiff's attorney Dru Anne Keegan has filed an ex parte application requesting an 24 extension of time to respond to defendants' motions (Dkt. No. 24). Currently, the deadline for 25 her responses is November 6. Attorney Keegan nonetheless seeks an extension of twenty-three 26 days such that her responses are due December 12. The December 19 hearing currently set for defendants' motions would then be moved to January 2, 2014, under Attorney Keegan's suggestion, because she has another matter in a different court at 9 AM on December 19.
Attorney Keegan represents that defendants have not indicated whether they would stipulate to such changes in schedule.27 Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(b)(1), a court may — for good cause shown — 28 extend the time by which an act must be done. Attorney Keegan submits that good cause exists because the November 6 deadline coincides with her unusual family hardships and because the

1 upcoming holiday and prearranged vacation schedules further compound the problem of 2 responding to defendants' motions before December 12. Specifically, Attorney Keegan declares
3 that she suffered from the unexpected loss of a treasured family pet and the illness of her mother
4 in the last two weeks.

5 The ex parte application is GRANTED IN PART. Attorney Keegan will file her responses
6 to defendants' motions by 12 PM ON NOVEMBER 20. Defendants' replies, if any, will be due by 7 12 PM ON NOVEMBER 27. Defendants' motions will still be heard at 8 AM ON DECEMBER 19.
8 This hearing date may possibly be reconsidered if the parties stipulate to January 2 as the hearing
9 date, or if Attorney Keegan provides details as to the name of the case and court in which she has 10 another hearing at 9 AM on December 19.
